that? I mean you wouldn't necessarily have to support Senator Beutler's amendment. I wish you would. Then before the bill comes up on Select File, again, I would be willing to talk to you and look at any list of boards or commissions or whatever they are that you would present and see which ones ought to be exempted out. What do you think of that approach, where instead of making it incumbent on those of us who would support Senator Beutler's amendment to select out these boards and commissions, we would adopt his amendment, then those who want to make the exemptions provide us with the boards and commissions that ought to be exempted.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Well, Senator Chambers, naturally, I would prefer the other tack and that is not adopting the Beutler amendment, moving the bill to Select, and coming back with said amendment on Select File. But it is not my bill and it is not my call. I'm just suggesting that that would be probably a better way to do it, from my perspective.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Just like me, we're just two lost souls on the highway of life.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'd like to ask Senator Janssen a question.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Certainly.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Janssen, you had made some disparaging remark about yourself as a grocer sitting on the chiropractic board, do grocers sell cereal?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Do what sell...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do grocers sell cereal?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Absolutely.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do they sell Rice Krispies cereal?
